Will Go Up All Along the Line Within a Year

MUNITION MAKERS MUST PAY MORE

Doubled in Many Instances,
Notably on Incomes of Individuals and Corporations

Washington, Jan. 2.—New federal taxes on incomes, estates, munition profits, corporation stocks, and business became effective with the new year yesterday and revenue collectors are making vigorous efforts to obtain early returns. The taxes are provided by the emergency revenue bill enacted by Congress Sept. 8.

Unmarried persons with net incomes of $3,000 or more and heads of families with incomes of $4,000 or more are subject to pay a normal tax of 2 per cent instead of the present rate of 1 per cent and additional taxes are imposed on incomes of more than $20,000 by a graduated scale running from 1 to 13 per cent.

A tax of 2 per cent is made on the income of corporations with stock valued at $75,000 or more; the former rate was 1 per cent.

A graduated tax of from 1 to 10 per cent is laid on estates of $50,000 or more when they are transferred. Munition manufacturers are taxed 12½ per cent of their net profits. Corporations are subject to a special excise tax of 50 cents a year for each $10,000 of face value of capital stock in excess of $90,000.

Among the new annual taxes on special businesses are these:

Securities brokers, $30; pawn brokers, $50; custom house brokers, $10; ship brokers, $20; theatres, $25 to $100, according to seating capacity, with rates one-half as great in towns of 50,000 or less; circuses, $100; other public amusement shows, excepting Chateaus, bowling alleys and billiard rooms, $5 for each alley or table; tobacco manufacturers, sliding scale of rates, determined by sales.

Special taxes heretofore collected from commission merchants and commercial brokers are abolished.

POWER OF DARKNESS DEFIED

Is Way One British Paper Summarizes
the Entente's Reply.

London, Jan. 1.—The morning newspapers to-day comment on the joint note of the entente allies in a manner similar to their previous criticisms of the note of the central powers, the Emperor of Russia's declaration with regard to peace and the speeches of the political leaders. The Morning Post describes the note as a document in which "ten nations have defied the powers of darkness, and once more have pledged themselves to fight to the end" and says it is a "moral victory of extraordinary moment to civilization."

An Attack of Grip Always Leaves Kidneys In Weakened Condition

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run-down condition, particularly the kidneys, which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles, which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp-Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and, being an herbal compound, has a gentle, healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles, 50 cents and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper.—Adv.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends All Stomach
Distress in Five Minutes

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Pape's Diapiesin is a sign of indigestion. He voiced as well as manifested his belief in democratic customs and declared that he had deliberately urged two of his young sons, who had graduated from the Austrian military academy the day before, to take commissions in ordinary line regiments, instead of in one of the favorite guard organizations. In the thick of the fighting in the Carpathians, the archduke has been living as simply as his subalterns, learning at first hand the environment of the officers and soldiers from the ranks of his people. His two sons have followed his suggestion, like their elder brother, Charles Albert, and have entered line regiments, the 13th Uhlan.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

MANY PRESCRIPTIONS THIS SEASON

For Impure Blood, Run-Down Condition and Loss of Appetite

In order to comprise the best course of treatment, and to secure the best results, should read as follows:

R Hood's Sarsaparilla—12 oz.

Peptonin Pills—200.

Sig: One teaspoonful Hood's Sarsaparilla before meals.

Two Peptonin Pills after meals.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is made from an unsurpassed formula of blood-purifying and stomach-toning remedies, including sarsaparilla, mandrake, dandelion, yellow dock, wild cherry, gentian and other valuable alteratives and kidney and liver remedies, while Peptonin Pills, named from pepton and iron, include these with nux and other blood and stomach tonics—just what physicians prescribe.

Get both to-day. 200 doses $2.—Adv.

GIANT STRIDES MADE BY CONGRESS FOR PREPAREDNESS

Short Session Has Been Busy One, but Still Has Railroad, Immigration,
Suffrage and Prohibition
Problems to Settle.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The short session of the 64th Congress is on the last lap of a whirlwind race. Following is a review of what has been accomplished and something of what remains to be done.

These, measured by public interest, are the most important legislative tasks accomplished by the 64th Congress:

The army and navy bills, carrying appropriations of gigantic sums, a long step towards preparedness.

Establishment of federal reserve banks to eliminate danger of financial panics.

Purchase of Danish West Indies at a cost of $25,000,000, another stride toward preparedness.

Federal farm loan act, of great interest to farmers and intended to aid them in securing necessary capital at a fair rate of interest.

Federal good roads law, provides $75,000,000 to be used in improving national highways.

Federal trade commission, a "go-between" in matters between the public and corporations.

Workmen's compensation; ship purchase act, a movement toward a real merchant marine. Child labor law.

Railway legislation looms up as the biggest piece of unfinished business. Strenuous efforts are being made to rush the railway program through during the present short session of Congress.

The corrupt practices bill, providing for publicity of campaign funds, is another important bill up for a speedy consideration.

The judgeship bill, which would relieve from service judges reaching the age of 70 after 10 years' service, and who by reason of physical disability are unable properly to discharge their duties, also is set for early hearing.

The fate of the immigration bill, with the literacy test attached, which was recently passed by the Senate, is hard to predict. President Wilson vetoed a similar bill. It is rumored an effort will be made to pass the bill over any possible veto.

Woman suffrage and national prohibition have been reported by the House committee, but it is impossible to say when either bill will reach a vote.

Other important measures due for an early consideration are: The water power bill, having to do with the leasing of power sites on inland waterways; the flood-prevention bill, carrying appropriations of millions for flood prevention along the Mississippi and Sacramento rivers, and the Webb export bill, which would permit combination of American exporters for participation in foreign trade in an effort to meet competition at the end of European hostilities.

The line-up of Republicans and Democrats in the Senate will be slightly altered in the 65th Congress, Democrats losing one and reducing their working majority to 13.

The line-up of the House is still in doubt. The result of the fight being made in North Carolina by Britt, Republican, and Weaver, Democrat, may decide the question of the majority in the lower branch of Congress.

A DEMOCRATIC SOVEREIGN.

Archduke Charles Stephen, the New Regent of Poland.

Warsaw, Jan. 2.—By those who know him, Archduke Charles Stephen, cousin of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, who has been selected as regent of Poland, is considered a most democratic sovereign, gifted with common sense, ability and personal charm. Conditions under which the Associated Press correspondent recently made his acquaintance illustrate the democratic side of his character. The correspondent was calling upon a friend at one of the lesser hotels in Vienna when a knock at the door was heard and without further formality a tall officer entered, shook hands, shed his overcoat, which he threw on a bed, and embarked in informal conversation. He was Poland's future sovereign who had thus made his way to the hotel room without even calling the services of an attendant when he learned that a correspondent of an American news agency was there.

The archduke conversed with the greatest cordiality, displaying an intimate knowledge and keen interest concerning conditions of American life and volunteered his assistance to facilitate the newspaperman's work. He was particularly impressed with the importance of the press in America and lamented the fact that the newspapers did not play such a role in Austria-Hungary. He voiced as well as manifested his belief in democratic customs and declared that he had deliberately urged two of his young sons, who had graduated from the Austrian military academy the day before, to take commissions in ordinary line regiments, instead of in one of the favorite guard organizations. In the thick of the fighting in the Carpathians, the archduke has been living as simply as his subalterns, learning at first hand the environment of the officers and soldiers from the ranks of his people. His two sons have followed his suggestion, like their elder brother, Charles Albert, and have entered line regiments, the 13th Uhlan.

Piles cured in 6 to 14 Days.

Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure itching, blind, bleeding or protruding piles. First application gives relief. 50c.—Adv.

POLICE HUNT CLUBMAN

In Brutal Murder of Philadelphia Artist Model
Beauty

ARREST PROMISED WITHIN 24 HOURS

Fingerprints the Most Damaging
Evidence Slayer
Left Behind

Philadelphia, Jan. 2.—A jealous fiend, who by day was known as a successful business man, with residence in Philadelphia and New York, and a card of membership to some of the East's best known clubs, is being sought by the police as the murderer of beautiful Mrs. Grace Roberts, the young model who was found dead in her apartment late Saturday night.

Out of the scores of men the 22-year-old beauty had met in her gay life, there was one man who loved her insanely, grew jealous of the other admirers, and then brutally slew her. That was the ground on which the police were working yesterday, and they expect a "surprising arrest" within 24 hours.

This man was attentive to Mrs. Roberts for about a year. When she insisted on continuing to visit cafes with other men they quarrelled. That, the police say, was the foundation for the murder.

Not a soul in the Wilson apartment, where Mrs. Roberts lived, heard her death struggles. Yet Mrs. Roberts' struggles against death had been so violent that her hair had been ripped from her head; blood splattered all over the bed clothes, and the once blue silk pajamas had been dyed red. She had first been struck in the face with a fist and, when she showed she could fight, her assailant used a fat-iron to crush her skull and then tied her own stocking around her throat.

The murderer had probably watched the girl drag herself across the floor and then collapse. By the dim light of a bonfire lamp the man lifted her body and placed it on the bed. He pulled the silk stocking as tight as possible, pulled the sheets up over her face, and tried to efface any traces of the struggle that had ensued 20 minutes before.

Then the man—the murderer whoever he is—walked out as quietly as though going to a theatre. A rubber hose had been attached to the gas and placed in the dead woman's hand. Her assailant, however, had forgotten to turn on the gas.

Fingerprints, stamped in blood, covered the bed clothing and wall. They were all of the same person, detectives pointed out, proving that while the man had probably planned the murder before he visited the house he was a novice at crime. A master criminal, they said, would have taken care to use gloves. It is the most damaging evidence he could have left behind. Another fingerprint had been left on the girl's forehead, where an effort had been made to pull her hair down over a wound. A blood-stained silk shirt and collar that had never been laundered were also found to have the same prints.

BEGINS SECOND TERM.

Gov. Whitman Again Inaugurated in the State of New York.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Charles S. Whitman of New York yesterday was inaugurated as governor of New York for a second term. Gov. McCall of Massachusetts and Ambassador De Gama of Brazil were present as personal guests of the governor. Mr. Whitman sat in the ancient chair used by DeWitt Clinton during his three terms as chief executive of the state.

The governor's inaugural address contained a recommendation that the state pay the members of the National Guard who served on the Mexican border the difference between the 50 cents per day which each man received from the federal government and the $1.25 which the state pays its troops when they are called out on state service.

Damaged in Collision.

Queensbury, Jan. 2.—The Italian steamship Legano, damaged badly in a collision in the fog outside Cork harbor, was towed into this port yesterday with the fore part of her hold filled with water. Her crew was brought here Sunday with the exception of the captain and one seaman, who were drowned.

ALL-AMERICAN ATHLETIC TEAM

Has Been Selected By Secretary F. W.
Rubien of the Amateur Athletic Union—Every Section of the Country Is Represented.

New York, Jan. 2.—Following the custom established by the late James E. Sullivan, Secretary F. W. Rubien of the Amateur Athletic Union has selected all-American track and field teams from among the A. A. U. college and scholastic stars for the season of 1916. Every section of the country is represented and the list furnishes a remarkable indication of the increase of athletic proficiency among all classes of competitors.

Secretary Rubien in his article outlining the various combinations for the A. A. U. records writes in part as follows:

"In selecting an all-American team, no double selections are made, one man being chosen for each event. The list includes the backbone of the team which would have represented this country in the 1916 Olympic games had they been held at Berlin as scheduled. One of the most difficult positions to select is the name of the man to head the list for the 100-yard run. My selections are Loomis for the 100 and Ward for the 200. Ward was the sprinting sensation of the year, winning both the 100 and 200 at the national championships. Loomis proved to be the fastest indoor sprinter during the winter, winning the national championship at 60 yards and in the record time of six and two-fifths seconds. During the summer his high jumping and broad jumping slowed him a trifle, but after his defeat in the national 100 he won the A. A. U. 100 and 200 yards, and defeated Ward in every start in Sweden and Norway, doing the 100 meters in 10.9-10 seconds.

"J. E. Meredith created world's records for the quarter and half mile, but had worthy opponents in E. C. Riley, B. Diamond and T. J. Halpin in the 440 and W. J. Bingham, Don Scott, L. Scudder and L. V. Windnagle in the 880. Meredith is selected for the quarter and Scott for the half. Scott is a wonderful runner, winning the intercollegiate conference and national half miles, and is comparatively a beginner. Bingham won the national indoor 600 and Overton the 1,000 and are added to the team for these popular distances. L. V. Windnagle ran the fastest mile of a year which produced many good miles. At two miles, D. F. Potter, J. S. Hoffman, C. J. Stout and J. Ray were the fastest. Jole Ray was the best five-mile runner, H. Holden, H. S. Weeks, O. Millard and E. Stout ran well.

"The final heat of the 120-yards high hurdles at the national championships brought the four best hurdlers in the world together and they can be ranked as they finished: Robert Simpson, first; Fred W. Kelly, second; Earl Thompson, third, and Fred Murray, fourth. Simpson's hurdling was the sensation of the year and his world's record of 14½ seconds is a remarkable performance. Fred Murray was easily the best 220-yards low hurdler. The 440-yard hurdles go to W. A. Hummel, although W. H. Meenitz is close up. In the walks, Richard Remer's closest competitor was W. Plant.

"Sherman Landers was a sensation as a pole vaulter. S. K. Foss, D. Newstetter, F. W. Floyd, Chester Fox, Fred A. Watkins and E. Knourak being the best of the field. Avery Brundage won the all-around championship, being hard pressed by A. W. Richards until he was disqualified in the hurdle event through displacing three hurdles. This team is undoubtedly the strongest track and field team America has ever produced and shows the great progress being made, for every section of this great country is represented."

The complete selections are as follows: All-American team—100 yards run, J. G. Loomis, Chicago A. A.; 200 yards run, A. E. Ward, Chicago A. A.; 440 yards, J. E. Meredith, Meadowbrook club, Philadelphia; 660 yards run, W. A. Bingham, Harvard university; 880 yards run, Don M. Scott, Mississippi Agricultural college; 1,000 yards run, J. W. Overton, Yale university; one mile run, L. V. Windnagle, Cornell university; two-mile run, D. F. Potter, Cornell university; five-mile run, Jole Ray, Chicago; 10-mile run, H. Kolehmainen, New York; cross-country, V. Kyrönen, Millrose A. A., New York; steeplechase, M. Devaney, Millrose A. A., New York; marathon, A. V. Roth, Dorchester club, Boston; 120-yard hurdles, Robert Simpson, University of Missouri; 220-yard hurdles, Fred Murray, Stanford university; 440-yard hurdles, W. A. Hummel, Multnomah A. A., C. Portland; walking, R. Remer, New York A. C.; standing broad jump, Platt Adams, New York A. C.; running broad jump, H. T. Worthington, Boston A. A.; standing high jump, W. H. Taylor, Irish-American A. C., New York; running high jump, W. M. Oler, jr., New York A. C.; running hop, step and jump, D. F. Ahearne, Illinois A. C.; Chicago; pole vault, Sherman Landers, Chicago A. A.; putting the 16-pound

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When Cross, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half sick, feverish, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach ache or diarrhea. Listen, mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs," because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

General Sporting Notes.

When "Babe" Ruth outlives his pitching usefulness, there will be an outfielder's berth awaiting him. Ruth is one of the greatest natural batsmen in the national pastime to-day and is probably one of the hardest hitters who ever worked into the majors. He is without doubt the greatest pinch hitter on the Boston squad, and would have played outfield during the 1916 campaign, if he had not been such a wonder in the box. Ruth also likes the outfield and when in practice he chases cloud ticklers a good share of the time. He is very fast for such a heavy man, being one of the best stealers on the Red Sox team during last year. There is no man whom the opposing pitchers fear to face as they do Ruth.

"Bill" Evans, American league umpire, relates many pleasing incidents in the game of ball which have been pulled off by the quick witted and have either pulled them out of a bad hole or put the opponents in as bad a one. He tells of one incident, when a youngster came into the big show from the minors. He came with some reputation and some head to bargain. He sailed along quite nicely until he ran up against the Tigres. For six innings he held them scoreless and then three men reached first base and Ty Cobb at bat. Jennings at this moment mentioned the pitcher's head in a voice loud enough for all to hear, and the pitcher blew up.

A Villa Defeat.

Juarez, Jan. 12.—Carranza forces met and defeated a Villa command at Bustillos, 50 miles west of Chihuahua railroad on Dec. 27, a Carranza officer from Chihuahua City who arrived here yesterday stated. Sixty prisoners were taken and executed, the Carranza official said.

Villa's Movements.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 2.—Francisco Villa was reported to have been at Concho, 60 miles south of Chihuahua City on Friday and moving north toward the state capital with a force of 5,000 men. There is said to be a fear that the Carranza forces in Chihuahua may be forced to evacuate the city.

TROUBLE IN ARIZONA.

The Gubernership in Dispute on Inauguration Day.

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 2.—Thomas F. Campbell, Republican, was inaugurated governor of Arizona yesterday. There were no inaugural ceremonies for governor for George W. B. Hunt, incumbent, who claims the office.

Governor Campbell delivered his inaugural address to a crowd that filled the capital grounds. There was no serious disturbance. Scores of armed deputies were scattered throughout the assembly.

Immediately after his address Governor Campbell proceeded to the executive office. He found a deputy on guard there, who said because it was a legal holiday he was under instructions to admit no one. A formal demand for admittance was made and the governor withdrew.

Governor Hunt left the capital shortly before Governor Campbell arrived, declaring he would be at his desk to-day. Governor Campbell announced that he considered the oath of office he took Saturday before a notary public sufficient to entitle him to the gubernership, and therefore he had not insisted on a formal ceremony at the capital yesterday.

Mandamus proceedings already have begun in the supreme court to compel Governor Hunt to relinquish the office of chief executive.
